

TOURISM IN FIGURES 2016

Dear,

here you can find another edition of 'Tourism in figures' which, once more, shows Croatia as a recognisable and acknowledged world tourist destination, which is confirmed by the increased number of arrivals and overnights compared to the year before. In addition to the traditionally loyal guests like the Germans, Austrians, Slovenes and Italians, Croatia is also being visited by a growing number of British, Chinese, and Koreans, as well as guests from new emissive markets, such as Israel and India.

Current global tourism trends and tourist demands for the modernisation and improvement of the quality of accommodation are followed by investments in increasing accommodation capacities. Such actions are supported by the increasing number of accommodation units in hotels, hostels and private accommodation as well by the increasing number of hotels, especially those with 4 and 5 stars, which, alongside a pleasant ambience, provide a variety of recreational, relaxation and entertainment activities, thus raising the quality of the entire tourist product.

In order to enable better transport connections between Croatia and Europe, as well as with other countries, Croatia has begun investing in the reconstruction and upgrading of Zagreb, Split and Dubrovnik airports. This will contribute to the further increase in the number of tourists, the increase in employment, realised income, and ultimately the development of the overall economy and the image of Croatia.

Croatia's tourism development strategy for 2014 - 2020 has set guidelines and goals for its further development, which define that, along with the dominant tourist product of "sun and sea", it is necessary to develop other selective forms of tourism that will be in line with sustainable development, especially health, rural, social and cycle tourism, on whose development, promotion and raising of awareness of their importance more attention has been paid lately. Conferences about health tourism were held, the World Congress on Social Tourism was held, the Ministry of Tourism launched a call for proposals called 'Improving the access of vulnerable groups to the labour market in the tourism and hospitality sector', financed through the European Social Fund. The Ministry also ensured funding for further investments in the development of cycle tourism, grants for rural areas projects have been initiated, the Sunflower of Croatia Rural Tourism award for the best projects in rural tourism is being held every year, and so on.

The beauties of Croatia, its protected cultural and historical heritage and preserved natural diversity are also recognised outside the frame of the tourism sector. Dubrovnik, Split, Šibenik, Lokrum, Trsteno and Klis became real stages for filming the world-famous 'Game of Thrones' series. Also, locations of Dubrovnik and Završje, a small Istrian place, were used for shooting 'Robin Hood' in which the leading roles included famous film stars Jamie Fox, Jamie Dornan, Taron Egerton, and of which Leonardo di Caprio is one of the producers. Besides 'Game of Thrones' and 'Robin Hood', it should be noted that scenes from the 8th 'Star Wars' movie, known as one of the world's most famous film franchises, were shot in Dubrovnik.

More and more is being invested in marketing activities related to traditional summer events such as the INMusic and Hideout festivals, the Dubrovnik Summer Games, film festivals in Motovun and Pula, Porcijunkulovo in Čakovec, as well as the Rijeka Carnival, Cest is D'best, Špancirfest, Đakovo Embroidery, Vinkovci Autumn Festival, Advent in Zagreb, which are trying to attract visitors outside the summer tourist season. Regarding sports events, we must point out the 'Tour of Croatia', a staged international bicycle race which is held on over 1,000 kilometres, and goes through more than 100 different locations and is broadcast live on national and international television, as well as the ATP Croatia Open in Umag, the oldest and most respectable tennis tournament in Croatia and the region, with its 28-year tradition, which besides first-rate tennis offers additional tourist, gastronomic and entertainment events. All of this contributes to Croatia's better recognisability in the world, as well to its attractiveness as a tourist destination, which is definitely worth visiting.

The continuous focus on raising the attractiveness and competitiveness of Croatian tourism through sustainable development, enhancing the quality of human resources, increasing excellence and paying more attention to guests is a common goal of all stakeholders, both public and private. With adequate and targeted activities, Croatia will continue winning the world's tourism market, strengthening its position on existing markets and entering new ones with the intention of achieving set goals and providing its guests with an overall high quality experience that will be always remembered!

Welcome to Croatia!
